

Middle School Course

Bring transformative social-emotional learning practices into your middle school classroom

Responsive Classroom is an evidence-based approach to teaching that's deeply rooted in social-emotional learning and focused on engaging academics, positive community, effective management, and developmental awareness. In this interactive and engaging four-day course, you'll learn how to design and implement a middle school experience that's responsive to the developmental strengths and needs of young adolescents—while helping your students develop the academic and social skills they need to be successful.

Key Features

- Discover how to create a safe, positive, and inclusive community with the Responsive Classroom approach to discipline
- Plan for and practice holding Responsive Advisory Meetings—a core practice for middle school
- Develop your teacher language to encourage student engagement and help them become more responsible and respectful
- Learn new strategies for effective classroom management
